

COURCHEVEL-096

From: €89,000/Week

Height of Prestige in the French Alp's

10 Guests • 5 Bedrooms • 680 m² / 7319 ft

Located in the wondrous Chénus region of Courchevel 1850, the awe-inspiring Chalet La Datcha rivals even the most revered of Alpine getaways. From soaring vaulted ceilings hang glistening gold-leafed chandeliers; walls are gracefully adorned with life-sized artworks; a furnace-like fire roars in the corner – no expense is spared. Whether wistfully gliding across 600km of pristine Les Trois Vallées pistes, pampering yourself in the stylish boutiques of Courchevel's urbane center or admiring the sublime comfort of the superlative abode; dreams are realized in this traditional-style chalet that bathes in otherworldly grandeur. The ultimate in luxury ski experiences in a blissful enclave of a famed region, expect indulgence at every turn.

A Restorative Retreat for the Fortunate Few

The stunning La Datcha sleeps ten people in five beautiful bedrooms set across three floors. On floor one resides the mercurial master suite where divine respite awaits in this heavenly abode. Views across the magnificent mountain-scape provide a restful sight for weary legs, a spacious en-suite bathroom offering the perfect post-ski idyll. A secluded second bedroom boasts spectacular valley views with its private bathroom for ultimate privacy – a luxury afforded to all bedrooms. Should you require a touch more space to think, a peaceful corner office offers sequestered sanctuary from its sheltered setting behind two walk-in wardrobes.

Gather in the Eaves for Spectacular Feasts

On the imperious top floor sits the well-appointed living space: a palatial chamber to which you ascend via the impressive in-chalet lift. Here you find the regal bar, which neighbors a now-legendary 'Cave à Vins' – in La

Datcha, expect to drink and dine better than anywhere in the Alps courtesy of the unparalleled wine list that transcends imagination. Take a glass onto the extensive balcony from where you'll relish picturesque mountain views - admire the chef prepare Michelin-quality banquets in the beautiful open kitchen - or simply recline, as flames flicker in the fireplace beneath traditionally Russian-patterned walls. The top floor is truly exquisite with an opulence that defies belief.

A Majestic Hinterland One Hopes Never to Leave

A mesmerizing ground floor greets guests on arrival. Sitting at the heart of the property, two generously-sized suites guarantee hours of serene slumber in over-sized beds graced with the world's finest linen. Let a calming ambiance wash over you as balconies welcome in the crisp mountain air, or bask in warmth beside vast glass facades breathing in the finest of Alpine vistas. Then, when the time finally arrives to explore the majesty of this incredible property, the lift awaits - ready to elevate you to ethereal new heights; or transport you into profound delight.

The Escapist's Enclave of Mindful Repose

One level down, a standalone bedroom has the run of the floor. For those who prize seclusion, peaceful retreat is quickly discovered. The en-suite bathroom with walk-in wardrobe ensures a princely space. The enviable wine cellar hides just around the corner. A soothing nightcap, perhaps? The option's there should such a whim take hold. The boot and ski room are also conveniently located on this floor: easily accessible via the lift and exiting towards the piste, once breakfast is over, energy levels replete, it's a matter of seconds before you descend into the tree-lined Alpine scenery.

Relax and Rejuvenate in La Datcha

Skier or not, the chalet Spa is designed for all to enjoy. A professionally-equipped fitness lounge invites guests with excess energy to burn more, while the tantalizing promise of a sauna or Turkish bath is sure to lure even the weariest of souls. If a massage is your deepest desire, take solace in the serenity of the treatment room. If nothing else, the Spa is the place to regroup and relax, sharing memories of a fiercely-skied day; yet, thankful for the reprieve of the sweltering steam room. Just before you leave, be sure to dive your hands into the ice fountain, then douse your skin in the rejuvenating cold - such an arctic sensation is sure to revive before an evening of exploration in the delights of this enchanting resort.

Read More

SERVICES INCLUDED

- Dedicated service from chalet staff (except alcohol)
- Price includes food and beverages

FACILITIES

- Bar area
- Close proximity to slopes
- Fireplace
- Garage Parking
- Gym
- Hammam / Steam room
- Indoor Jacuzzi / hot tub
- Lift
- Massage room
- Sauna
- Ski & boot room
- Swimming Pool
- Wellness spa
- Wine cellar

DISCANCES

Town: 750 metres

Skiing: 90 metres

IMAGES

