Versatile ultra-luxury private chalet/hotel

14-20 Guests • 7 Bedrooms • 2000 m² / 21528 ft

Nestling in the heart of the largest ski area in the world, the Lys Martagon, like the eponymous flower of the Alps, is a unique concept that will delight travellers seeking privacy and authenticity. Created by people who love both the mountains and art, this outstanding chalet continues its metamorphosis, while respecting the true mountain tradition and its unique setting. The Estate brings together the past and the future. With the elegance of Art Deco, the traditional materials, the works of art, and the delicacy of the fabrics, the chalet superbly combines the highest international standards of modern comfort with all the warmth of an exceptional family home. Now you can enjoy its 2 000 m² of living space, 7 configurable suites, capable of accommodating up to 20 people, and its numerous 5* facilities and services. The chalet is an invitation to spend time together, in a place where time seems to stand still, between past and present, between beauty and exquisite simplicity. A cultural getaway with the physical and emotional presence of works of art. There are paintings by Impressionist Armand Guillaumin, mosaics of colourful Sicis glass, back-lit stained-glass panels and ceilings designed by the great illustrator Pavel Orinianski, and dozens of works by famous jeweller René Lalique Start getting away from it all the moment you arrive! As soon as you enter the house, the gentle harmony of the spaces and the peace and quiet will strike you immediately. From your terrace or balcony, marvel at the magnificent snow-clad mountain landscape.
