Spellbinding Retreat Launching You Straight onto the Slopes of Lech

8 Guests • 4 Bedrooms • 800 m² / 8611 ft

Lech undoubtedly sits amidst the most picturesque resorts in the world. Now, there's a newly-completed, beautifully-appointed chalet that surely contends with these vertiginous surrounds. Perched alongside the glistening pistes of the Arlberg ski range, and with endless panoramas spanning the dazzling environs, here is a profound statement of mountain architecture that befits the region in which it's set. When coupled with the five-star service on offer from the specialist service team, it becomes hard to imagine a more scenic Alpine escape – or escape of any sorts, truth be told. Rest Amidst Natural Materials Sided by Majestic Views The expansive mountain range is perfectly reflected in the open-plan living found within the illustrious chalet: waltz into the capacious lounge and prepare to unwind as an open-sided fireplace roars, center stage – a wood store drifting, as if by magic, just above. Help yourself to an early-evening aperitif as you marvel at views presented by floor-to-ceiling windows; regale death-defying stories of couloirs as you satiate your appetite; then, retreat to the colossal banqueting table: a serene setting for Chef to serve memorable evening meals. Should the night roll on; take a coffee onto one of two stately terraces and watch as the stars gently glint above snow-capped peaks. Now, imagine yourself gliding down tomorrow's pristine pistes – as you absorb the tranquility of a transcendental backdrop. Slumberous Sanctuaries in which to Dreamily Unwind The top floor hosts two of the chalet's four immaculate en-suite bedrooms. Withdraw into uber-relaxing abodes and lay wistfully as dreams take hold; guests often find it tricky to snatch themselves from the comforting embrace of these heavenly chambers. Walk-in wardrobes declutter the floor, bountiful bathtubs ensure an easing of the mind – all that's left to complete the purity of the experience is a balcony drenched in early-morning sun, freshly-brewed coffee in-hand. On the ground floor, guests discover two equally well-appointed en-suite bedrooms. It's time to descend into the heart of the chalet and enjoy uninterrupted peace – and should you wish to make it up on the first lift, know that the ski room is by your side, ready to eject you onto a freshly-groomed piste, any time you so wish.

A Wellness Hub to Indulge Every Whim and Desire No necessity goes unnoticed in this modern masterpiece as wellness sits at the heart of the chalet's offering. Whether you take a dip in the turquoise waters of the 8m indoor pool or seek sanctuary in the warmth of the exposed on-terrace Jacuzzi, there is an aqua-escape to satisfy any such craving. A vitality bar is a salubrious detail that guests come to love; pluck your rehydration of choice as you emerge from the sweltering steam room – or, if dry heat's your game, choose the sauna to loosen up sore muscles, post-revitalizing massage. Endless Entertainment for Kids Large and Small, Alike In the depths of the chalet, revelry and entertainment abound. Descend into the inspired party room to shoot pool, play darts, or simply unwind, late-night whiskey in-hand. Should evenings call for a more subdued affair, take refuge in front of Hollywood's latest blockbuster as an improbable cinema room blast out surround-sound special effects. Whether you're here for a wild time – or looking for some family time – take solace in one gracious fact: here is a chalet set up to accommodate every conceivable group dynamic.
