From the exterior, it looks right at home in a Tyrolean village with its antique wood, local stone and Austrian styled shutters, whilst inside the modern facilities and luxurious interior are exactly what the discerning skier is looking for. The chalet is split into 3 large apartments and as you walk into the lobby area with its log fire and bar area you instantly know this isn't a typical chalet. The Tyrolean stube restaurant area is available for groups taking all 3 apartments enabling you to eat together as a group as you experience the sumptuous 5 course evening meal prepared by our talented chefs.
