As the name suggests, Chalet Spa delivers the ultimate in serene ambiances.

Penthouse Luxury Reigns Supreme

On the top level hides the height of opulence: a magnificent penthouse suite boasting a floor all to itself. Savoring a mammoth super-king bed, a glorious gas fire and unbridled mountain views – whoever resides in this relaxing rooftop suite may never want to leave. With an en-suite bathroom replete with light-therapy jacuzzi bath and a separate rain shower, prepare to unwind the second you step into these sublime surrounds.

Inspiring Outdoor Space with a Panoramic Backdrop

Level two comprises of an extensive outdoor terrace that includes a handmade cedar wood hot tub sitting beside the rotisserie-style BBQ. A stretched dining table is a picturesque location from which to enjoy fire-roasted delights or take to a sunbed and let the splendor of blue-bird days warm the soul. Should the temperature drop, retreat to the inviting indoors and huddle around a roaring sunken fireplace: a masterstroke of design that brings this timber palace to life. A vaulted ceiling towers overhead to preserve the traditional chalet atmosphere, soft-furnishings provide respite for weary limbs. Opposite lies a convivial dining table, welcoming guests to banquet together; once the call from the well-appointed kitchen arrives.

King-sized Suites Ensure Regal Repose

At the heart of Chalet Spa hide four en-suite bedrooms; each available as a king-sized or twin. Drenching rain showers provide welcome reprieve after lengthy days cruising the slopes, magic mirror TV's link to the chalet media system for ever-present entertainment. Each room boasts a south-facing terrace for halcyon sunsets to bring heavenly days to a close, while bedrooms 4 and 5 link up to create a family suite. As if the palatial bedrooms are not enough, Chalet Spa assumes its name from this tranquil floor: a divine swimming pool dominates one side with a glass visage offering uninterrupted views of the Alps. Private fitness zones sit both indoors and out - personal trainer on-demand - with all the latest in mod-cons. The extraordinary terrace doubles as a yoga/Pilates space. With a sauna, hammam, massage room, second hot tub, and treatment room - expect to lose hours in this softly-lit sanctuary.

Subterranean Cinematic Splendor

On the bottom floor resides a playful entertainment space with a timeless billiards table for endless enjoyment. Or, should further distraction be required, screen Hollywood's latest release in the impressive cinema room, opening a bottle of vintage wine from the Chalet's very own cave à vins. This lower level also has a separate staff apartment, which doubles as two additional guest bedrooms, should they be required. Affording maximum privacy with a secluded Japanese garden, this is the perfect space for families seeking quieter moments with a hidden tunnel delivering residents straight onto the mesmeric mountainside.
